FROM THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT

To Members of Calvary Lutheran Church Winger:

I hope everyone had a nice Christmas. We have had a lot of snow and cold temperatures, but I hope that changes soon. I know the weather changed travel plans for some.

Thanks to Devra for having a Sunday School Christmas program and leading the service on the 18th. She has found a lot of children in Winger and from some surrounding areas to be in Sunday School.

There will not be church on January 1st. Pastor Morton will be here on January 8th and the 22nd. Nathan Johnson on January 15 and Jeanne Rains on January 29th.

Thanks to Byron and Orrie for working on the sound system, they hope to have it fixed soon.

Thank you to those that have brought something to have with coffee before church. It would be nice if a few more would volunteer to bring bars, cookies, etc for coffee.

Christmas Day service was different as Bruce Krogstad could not come. With modern technology he was still able give the sermon. Thanks to Blanchard Krogstad for reading the Christmas story from the bible.

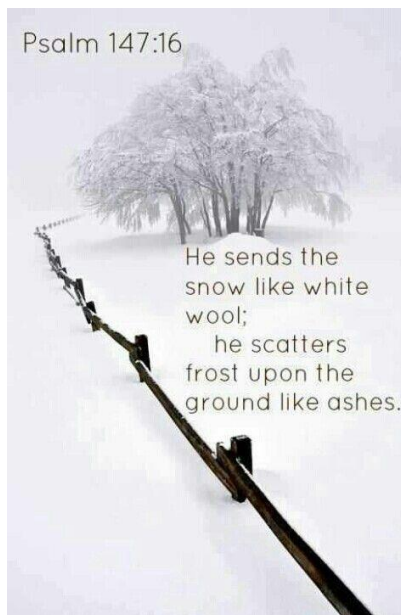

Hope everyone has a good New Year. God's Blessing to all.

Elmyrna Kaupang, President
