FROM THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT

To members of Calvary Lutheran Church,

There were 48 ladies at our church for the WELCA fall conference. Joyce White gave a very nice program and four of her daughters were there and provided music. It was enjoyed by all those in attendance. The ladies from our church served egg bakes, muffins and fruit before the meeting.

Here is the pulpit supply for November: Joyce White for November 6th, Pastor Morton for the 13th, Nathan Johnson for the 27th and I am waiting to hear back from someone for Sunday, November 20th.

I know it is not the same now as when we had Pastor Syverson or any other full-time pastors but our church doors are still open and we would like to see more people coming to church on Sundays. It would be nice to see more of the pews filled like they used to be.

If you cannot make it to church, please remember to send your offering by mail as we still have monthly expenses to pay.

Thanks to Gerri Balstad for all the work that she does to keep our church looking nice all the time. Even trimming the bushes and painting the blue handicap parking areas. Thanks also the Marissa for the good job she does with our weekly bulletins and the monthly newsletters.

As I have said before in my letters, I will always appreciate any suggestions or comments. Hope you are all staying healthy and that the farmers will soon get all their work done.

God's blessings to all of you.
Elmyrna Kaupang, President

COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES

The Calvary Council met after services on October 9, 2022. The minutes from the August meeting were read and approved. There was no meeting in September.

The Treasurer's report was presented and accepted. Money from a memorial was placed in a fund to be used for piano or organ expense.

Church insurance with Church Mutual may see an increase for next year. A decision on this will be made after more information is received. We are hoping to be able to have Pastor Morton at least once a month for the winter months.

The next Council meeting will be held on November 13 after services. The meeting was adjourned.

Sec. Shirley Sonsteli
